Check List for Mid-Year MT GCE 'O' Level Results – 2023

The following is the Guideline for Converting and Analysing GCE 'O' Level Results. Your PAMS should Version 5 dated 31 Jul 2023 or later.

If not, you may upgrade from <https://www.rjcat.com>

only schools with Service Contract for Year 2023 may upgrade

S.T.E.P.S.

- 1 Change System Year - You will need to change the System Year to 2023 so that PAMS can reminder the Year you are processing.
- 2 Check GCE Code Mapping & Subject Grading Scheme - You will need to ensure that the GCE Codes are mapped to the PAMS Subject Codes accordingly. Otherwise, you will get "Undefined GCE Codes" during the Conversion.
You will first download the GCE Text File from MOE and save it into your computer. Convert will import the Data from the TextFile into PAMS format.
- 3 Convert GCE 'O' Level Results - You will first download the GCE Text File from MOE and save it into your computer. Convert will import the Data from the TextFile into PAMS format.
- 4 Process Results - After you have converted the GCE Results, you are ready to process the GCE Results. Processing will compute and tabulate the Results, preparing data for Printing.

The first 3 steps can be done prior to release of GCE Results.

After you have gone through all the STEPS, you may proceed to Print all the relevant Reports for Analysis.

Step 1 - Change System Year

This is to ensure that you are dealing with the correct year data.

Step 2 - Check GCE Code Mapping

Since the Subject Codes and the GCE Codes are not the same, you will need to map them accordingly. Otherwise, you may encounter “GCE Codes not defined” when you convert the GCE Results.

Use the 1st GCE for the main mapping. The 2nd GCE is meant for Subject with different GCE Syballus.

You should ensure that ALL the GCE ‘O’ Codes for Sec 3, Sec 4 and Sec 5 Normal (A) are defined.
